Local Residents Are Moving To California

Greencastle will lose two of its long-time residents on August 7 when Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop leave to make their future home in southern California. The Bishops came to this city 36 years ago. Mr. Bishop was associated with the local school system for thirty years, serving first as principal of the high school and later as a member of the junior high school faculty. Since his retirement a few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bishop have spent several winters in California. Their son, Dr. John Bishop, a research chemist, is located in the Los Angeles area.

The Bishops have participated in many Greencastle community activities and held memberships in various local organizations. Mr. Bishop has been affiliated with educational groups at the state level, among which are the Indiana State Teachers Association, The Indiana Schoolmen's Club, and Phi Delta Kappa. Mrs. Bishop is a member of the Brown County Gallery Association.

The Bishops have chosen to locate in a retirement community. They expect to occupy their newly-built apartment there by the end of August. Their address will be 435F Avenida Sevilla, Rossmore Leisure World, Laguna Hills, California.

Indiana Traffic Toll Now 817

By United Press International

Indiana's 1965 traffic toll was at least 817 today, compared with 708 on this date a year ago.

Authorities said Merle Tolbert, 47, near West Baden, apparently burned to death Tuesday evening when he lost control of his big tank truck on an Orange County road south of French Lick. They said the vehicle was loaded with gasoline when it rammed a tree and rolled over, bursting into flames.

Child's Version Of An Operation

DORCHESTER, England UPI—Staff members of Dorset County Hospitals are chuckling over a child's eye view of a tonsil operation that lends unusual stature to the attending surgeon.

A staff letter quotes the child's own account as follows:

"When I went into the big room there were two lady angels all dressed in white.

"Then two men angels came in.

"One of the men angels looked down my throat and said: 'God! look at that child's tonsils.'

"And God looked and said, 'I'll take them out at once!'

Youngsters Are Bitten By Snakes

JASPER UPI — Melvin Jones, 6, and Keith Bauer, 2, were reported in fair condition at DuBois County Memorial Hospital at Jasper today, suffering from snake bites they received Tuesday.

Authorities said the boys, cousins who were playing in their grandmother's garden, apparently were bitten by a copperhead and rushed to the hospital. State police flew antivenom serum to the hospital from Evansville when it was discovered only two vials of the serum were on hand.

Melvin was bitten on a finger and Keith on the palm of one hand. Melvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, and Keith the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bauer, both of near DuBois.

It was the second reported incident of hospitalization from snakebite in Indiana in the last six days, with Stanley Driver, 25, R. R. 2, Monticello, admitted to White County Hospital at Monticello last Tuesday.

Cholera Epidemic

TEHERAN, Iran UPI — One third of Iran is in the grip of a cholera-type epidemic, Premier Hoveida Sadi said today.

Sadi told a news conference here the disease was being controlled and all effective measures were being taken to prevent it spreading to other parts of the country. It was announced Monday 89 persons have died since July 22.

Sees No Merger Of Armed Units

WASHINGTON UPI — Unless President Johnson pulls out all the stops, there will be no merger of the National Guard and the organized Army reserve this year.

That much was apparent today as a House armed services subcommittee prepared to wind up hearings on the controversial Defense Department proposal.

Subcommittee Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., made it almost official Tuesday when he said a merger at "this time," in light of developments in Viet Nam, would be detrimental to the national security.

Hebert, in an interview today, stressed that he was not necessarily opposing the principle of the merger, just its timing, adding that the conditions making it unfeasible could change next week.

Sewart AFB spokesmen said no one was injured. They declined to reveal how many passengers were on the plane.

The aircraft, enroute from McGuire AFB in New Jersey to Travis AFB in California, dumped 400 gallons of fuel on the Chattanooga area as an emergency procedure to lighten the weight of the plane.

Girl Scouts Return From Idaho Roundup

The trip home from the Girl Scout International Roundup in Idaho is described by Miss Elaine Shumaker as follows:

On Saturday, July 31, at 8:30 p. m. 22 girls from Covered Bridge Girl Scout Council returned by train to Terre Haute from the 1965 Senior Girl Scout Roundup. The Scouts, including five girls from Greencastle and one from Bainbridge, had been for nearly three weeks. The site of the Roundup was Farragut State Park in northwestern Idaho, near beautiful Lake Pend Oreille.

For the ten days of Roundup the girls practiced the art of gracious living in the outdoors and pursued their interests in the varied areas of Scouting. Miss Anne Silander and Miss Chris Johnson, both of Greencastle, worked as commentators, sending many taped interviews to radio stations located throughout the Council.

The trawler was cut in two by the impact.

The Esposende fishing fleet sped to the scene to pick up bodies and search for possible survivors.

Esposende is a fishing town with a population of about 15,000, on Portugal's west coast about 40 miles north of the city of Oporto.

Grocery Robbed By Lone Bandit

TELL CITY UPI — Indiana and Kentucky police Tuesday launched a search for a gunman who escaped with more than $1,200 from a Tell City grocery after they found the getaway car he used near the Ohio River.

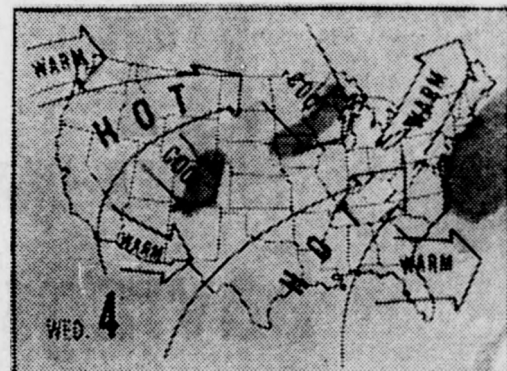

Authorities theorized the robber used a boat to cross the Ohio River into Kentucky after escaping with the loot. They said the bandit entered the Tell City Market Tuesday and asked a clerk, Art Damin, whether the owner was in the store.

Damin told the man he was alone and police said the robber then pulled a gun and ordered the clerk to stuff money from a cash register in a paper bag. They said he escaped in a late model car.

Actress Becomes Mother Of Girl

OXFORD, England UPI—Oscar-winning actress Patricia Neal, who is recovering from a triple stroke, gave birth today to a "perfect" baby girl.

A spokesman for the 39-year-old actress said the 6-pound-7-ounce girl—Miss Neal's fifth child—was born at Radcliffe infirmary at 8:22 a.m.

Miss Neal is the wife of British writer Roald Dahl.

Dahl was present at the birth today. The spokesman said "everything's perfect."

The spokesman said Miss Neal probably will remain in the hospital for about 10 days. He said no name has yet been selected for the baby.

Partly paralyzed and wearing steel-and-leather braces on her right leg, she came to England in May determined to have her baby.

sources that the chairman, who exerts considerable influence on most of the other members, did not see how the legislation authorizing the merger could possibly clear all hurdles by mid-September, when Congress is expected to adjourn.

The only ray of hope for the Pentagon—which believes it is essential to merge now—lay in the possibility that Johnson would take an active and direct interest in the plan.

Legislative wheels could be made to spin at high speed if the President told democratic leaders that he wanted Congress to act on the plan before it quit for the year.

Defenders Need Four Good Plays

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When you have 25 or 26 points in four suits, with at least three aces, you should have a good play for game at notrump. How often are your opponents good enough to make the correct play in each of the four suits? This is needed to defeat a certain type of hand.

Opening lead — A 5

West makes his normal spade lead, which has the fortunate effect (for the defenders) of taking the ace of spades out of the dummy. East wins the first trick with the king of spades and returns a spade to remove the side entry to dummy's long clubs.

Declarer leads a diamond from dummy, and East plays low. South wins with the king of diamonds and returns the jack of clubs. West must put up the king, since otherwise dummy's long suit would come in quite easily.

Declarer wins in dummy with the ace of clubs and leads another diamond. East must play low again, since otherwise the rest of the diamonds are good for South. South wins with the queen of diamonds and leads out the ace and queen of hearts.

FOURTH SUIT

The defenders have played three suits perfectly and must now make the right play in hearts. West refuses to win the second round of hearts.

South leads a club to dummy, but East holds off. South gets two tricks in each suit, but that is all.

If West took the king of hearts and returned a spade, South would win and return a club. East would hold off, and declarer would cash dummy's jack of hearts and put East in with the queen of clubs. East would be left with the ace-ten of diamonds and would have to let South make the ninth trick with the jack of diamonds.

If your opponents are good enough to defend this way regularly you should bid conservatively. Otherwise you can afford to bid your cards aggressively.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1 NT, and the next player passes. You hold: spades K 9 2 hearts 7 4 2 diamonds A 10 9 7 clubs Q 8 5. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid three notrump. Partner has 16 to 18 points, and you have 9 points. At worst, the partnership totals will be 25 points, and you have a ten and a couple of nines to bolster up suits that may be shaky. You would bid only 2 NT with 8 points or with a thin 9 points, but you can afford to jump to game when you have 9 points with good intermediate cards.

National Window Opinion

United Press International

President Johnson has made down payment on his debt to organized labor and shortly will pay off one political mortgage altogether. He can burn the mortgage when the Senate takes away from all 50 states the right every state has enjoyed since the Constitution became effective to permit or to forbid compulsory unionism within its borders.

LBJ's first down payment to labor was made when the House voted 221 to 203 to outlaw right-to-work laws in 19 states.

This abolition of a right possessed by all states to forbid compulsory unionism was accomplished by repeal of part of the 1947 Taft - Hartley Labor Act. Repealed was Section 14B which guaranteed to the states the right to forbid compulsory unionism.

Section 14B was included in the original Taft - Hartley Act. It guaranteed workers the right of association. In this instance, it guaranteed a choice of whether to join or not to join a union. Nineteen states now have right-to-work laws which will be scrapped when the Senate adopts the 14B repealer and LBJ signs it.

Union leaders made repeal of section 14B their No. 1 demand on Johnson in exchange for their votes in the 1964 presidential race. To meet this demand, Johnson was compelled to reverse his position on the Taft-Hartley Act. When Johnson ran for the Senate in Texas in 1948 he was all-out for Taft-Hartley an a notable defender of the rights of free men against the dictatorship of the union bosses. As a 1948 candidate for the Senate in Texas, Johnson did not need the money or the political organization of the union leaders. It was during and after this stage of LBJ's political career that he also acquired a reputation for opposing civil rights legislation. He needed Negro and left - wing white votes then no more than he needed the labor leaders.

Johnson's championship of civil rights and his support of the labor leader's demand for amendment of Taft - Hartley could not have been foreseen that he would reach the White House and have urgent need for union and Negro political support.

Quotes Johnson
During his 1948 Senate campaign the Dallas, Tex., News quoted Johnson as having said on Aug. 10 in a campaign speech: "I have never sought nor do I seek now the support of any labor bosses dictating to free men anywhere."

The News quoted him 10 days later as having said there were only two great issues before Texans and the nation at that time. He added:

"One is whether we should bow our necks to labor dictatorship through repeal or softening of the anti-Communist Taft-Hartley bill, the other is the question of foreign policy."

Questioned recently at a news conference about his opposition to civil rights some years ago, the President said he had made some mistakes but that he now recognized them. His mistakes evidently extended to Taft-Hartley.

Paris Styles

PARIS UPI — Yves Saint Laurent, the youngest designer in Paris, presented his new "baby girl" look today, complete with puffed sleeves and bib collars.

The press was barred from the opening show of the Saint Laurent fall - winter collection. Reporters were invited to attend Friday.

But department store buyers and manufacturers emerging from the salon raved about his "baby girl" dresses. However, one pointed out they looked like New York resort ready-to-wear sold this summer.

They said his young outfits pushed the current Paris youth kick way back to the lollipop, if not baby buggy, stage. The dresses had high Empire waistlines under the bust, the fabric falling in soft folds. Puffed sleeves, bib collars, pur-tan collars and a few ruffles completed the look.

Saint Laurent kept his skirt lengths at mid-knee.

The buyers said the designer was flooded with orders for a series of simple jerseys in strong mosaic colors, such as deep purple or dark green.

Saint Laurent kept his waistline loose, according to buyers, and did not go in for any snugly - belted suit jackets or dresses as did his arch-rival, designer Marc Bohan, at the salon of Christian Dior.

The main Saint Laurent suit was double - breasted and hit the hipbone, reminiscent of a lumberman's jacket, one buyer said.

The buyers praised Saint Laurent as presenting the best collection so far in Paris.

Hubert de Givenchy and Cristobal Balenciaga, two other pacesetters, are yet to show.

Capt. Edward Molyneux showed diagonal balts, placed low on the hip like a sheriff's holster.

The narrow or two-inch belts on slim dresses was one touch that caused some fashion writers to judge his show as younger and prettier than his comeback collection last January when he emerged from retirement.

Says Klan Can Elect Governor

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of the Ku Klux Klan said Tuesday the Klan will have more than enough power in Indiana within a year to elect a governor.

"Give us a year in Indiana and we'll have that power and more," Shelton said in reply to a newsman's question as to whether he believed the Klan would ever have enough power to elect a governor as it did in the 1920s when D. C. Stephenson was grand dragon of the strong organization and boasted "I am the law in Indiana."

Shelton spent the night at an Indianapolis motel after a visit to nearby Greencastle, where Claude Parnell, 61, was arrested last week on charges of "racketeering in hate" in connection with the distribution of copies of a Klan publication. Shelton said he spent "several hours" with Parnell at the latter's country home near Greenfield, promising Parnell legal aid and moral support in his efforts to avoid punishment under a 1947 state law which the Indiana Civil Liberties Union says has been held by a court as unconstitutional.

Shelton also called on Hancock County Sheriff Edwin Kirkpatrick.

He said Klan attorneys may file countersuits charging false arrest of Parnell on grounds "there has been a violation of the man's constitutional rights."

Kirkpatrick and Shelton talked for about 20 minutes.

State Fair To Open Aug. 28th

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Indiana State Fair officials announced Tuesday that more than 200,000 advance sale tickets for the 1965 fair are on sale in 73 counties.

Secretary - manager Hal Royce said that the advance sale tickets are being sold for 50 cents. If tickets are purchased at the fair gate they will cost 75 cents.

The annual event runs from Aug. 28 through Sept. 7 this year. The tickets are on sale in 225 locations around the state and are being sold in various banks and stores.

Launch Satellite

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. UPI — A satellite employing an Atlas-Agena booster combination was launched Tuesday from this base by the Air Force.

There were no additional details and the Air Force did not say whether the satellite achieved orbit.

To Issue Ruling

WASHINGTON UPI — The Federal Power Commission (FPC) Thursday will issue its long-awaited Permian Basin decision, a far-reaching ruling on natural gas prices which could affect the gas heating and cooking bills of 36 million American families.

Know You Know

By United Press International

In 1948, immediately after World War II, the United States purchased goods valued at $86.6 million from the Soviet Union, an increase of $62.5 million over the import level in 1938, according to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development.

Issue Complaint

JAKARTA UPI — Indonesia complained Monday that Americans used tear gas against a mob stoning the U.S. consulate in Medan, North Sumatra, last week. The embassy here denied the charge.

The official news agency Antara said the tear gas upset an otherwise "peaceful" demonstration.

The American Embassy in Jakarta said more than 1,000 demonstrators marched on the Medan consulate last Friday, tore down the fence and broke almost every window in the two-story building. The report was cabled to U. S. officials here by Medan Consul Theodore J. Heavner.

Heavner said there was no tear gas or other anti-riot supplies in the building. Indonesian police and troops guarding U.S. diplomatic posts are equipped with tear gas canisters, however.

The report of the Medan rioting appeared in the Jakarta press for the first time Monday. Antara said the Indonesians began throwing rocks and stones at the Medan consulate in self-defense after tear gas was used on them.

President Sukarno, meanwhile, hinted in a speech published Monday that Indonesia might break off diplomatic relations with the United States. He was quoted as telling navy officers at a seminar in Bogor Palace Saturday he "admired" Cambodia for that tiny Southeast Asian country's official break in relations with Washington.

Indonesian Communists have been pressing Sukarno to break relations with the United States. A few days ago, the Reds organized an anti-American demonstration to greet Marshall Green as he arrived to take up his duties as the new U. S. ambassador.

Sukarno ordered his troops to keep demonstrators away from the airport and received Green's credentials with rare promptness.

Raise The Tide

WASHINGTON UPI — Congress is considering plans to set up a national council that would put exploration of the ocean's depths on a level comparable with that of the space program.

A House merchant marine subcommittee Tuesday began hearings on measures that would set up a high level oceanography panel to coordinate and intensify research activities that are now being carried on by 22 federal agencies.

Crossed Wires

WASHINGTON UPI — The Senate passed legislation to authorize incorporating Ellis Island as part of the Statue of Liberty national monument twice Tuesday after getting its signals crossed.

Shortly after convening, the body approved and sent to the House legislation authorizing a $6 million appropriation for the project. But the bill came back from the House with a message that the body had already approved identical legislation.

So the Senate reversed its earlier action, shelved its own bill and approved the House measure, which went directly to the White House for President Johnson's signature.

MURDERER ESCAPES — Louisiana state police have issued an all stations bulletin for Aubrey Clifton Francis (above), 25, convicted murderer who escaped from Rapides Parish Jail in Alexandria. He was sentenced to the electric chair for the slaying of an agricultural agent in Woodworth, La.

YOUNG MAN HELD

CHICAGO UPI — A Milwaukee young man has been indicted on charges of driving stolen automobiles in a three-state credit card spending spree under the alias, Cornelius Vanderbilt IV.

The indictment charged David Staudt, 22, of Milwaukee and Bloomfield Hills, Mich., with stealing cars on three separate occasions during February and March in Miami, Fla., and driving them to Chicago, Highland Park, Ill., Madison, Wis., and Indianapolis, Ind.

The indictment was returned by a federal grand jury Tuesday.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK: Year of Epochal Decision: 1865

60-A A convention was called, a state constitution was prepared, and application was made for the admission of Colorado into the Union as a state in 1865. An enabling act was subsequently passed by both houses of Congress, but the bill was vetoed by President Andrew Johnson. In consequence, Colorado Territory was to have to wait 11 years for a change in its status. It could have been the 37th state, but it became the 38th.

There was logic to President Johnson's belief the territory was not ready for statehood. A geographical reference work of the time stated, "Colorado has had a brief history. In 1857 a party of civilized Cherokees made the first organized attempt to explore it, but were driven back by the roving tribes of Indians. In 1858, a company of prospectors from Lawrence, Kansas, reported discovery of gold in the valley near the base of Pike's Peak. This discovery brought a general rush of emigrants to Pike's Peak, as the whole region was called, during the next two years.

"Many of the emigrants, not provided with food or the other necessary articles for so perilous and tedious a journey, perished on the way. But others followed and in 1860, the region had 35,000 inhabitants. The territory was organized in February 1861 under the name of Colorado."

Four years later, as indicated above, statehood was sought. There was an inconsistency in its rejection then, for Nevada, transformed from uninhabited wilderness to a booming territory in a decade by a gold discovery and "rush," had been admitted to the Union in 1864 when the population, including Indians, was under 40,000.

Many of those emigrants referred to above came directly to Colorado from Europe, attracted by prospects of striking it rich in the gold diggings. Steamship and railroad companies combined to enable an emigrant to travel from Sweden, for example, to Colorado for $64.75!

FINDS BOY LOST IN MOUNTAINS FOUR DAYS—Found leaning against a tree in the heavy woodlands of the Catskill Mountains by Airman 2.C. Theodore Kouy (right), Herahel Babad, 4, is recuperating at Monticello Hospital in Woodbridge, N.Y. The boy, who wandered away from a camp, was lost four days without food.

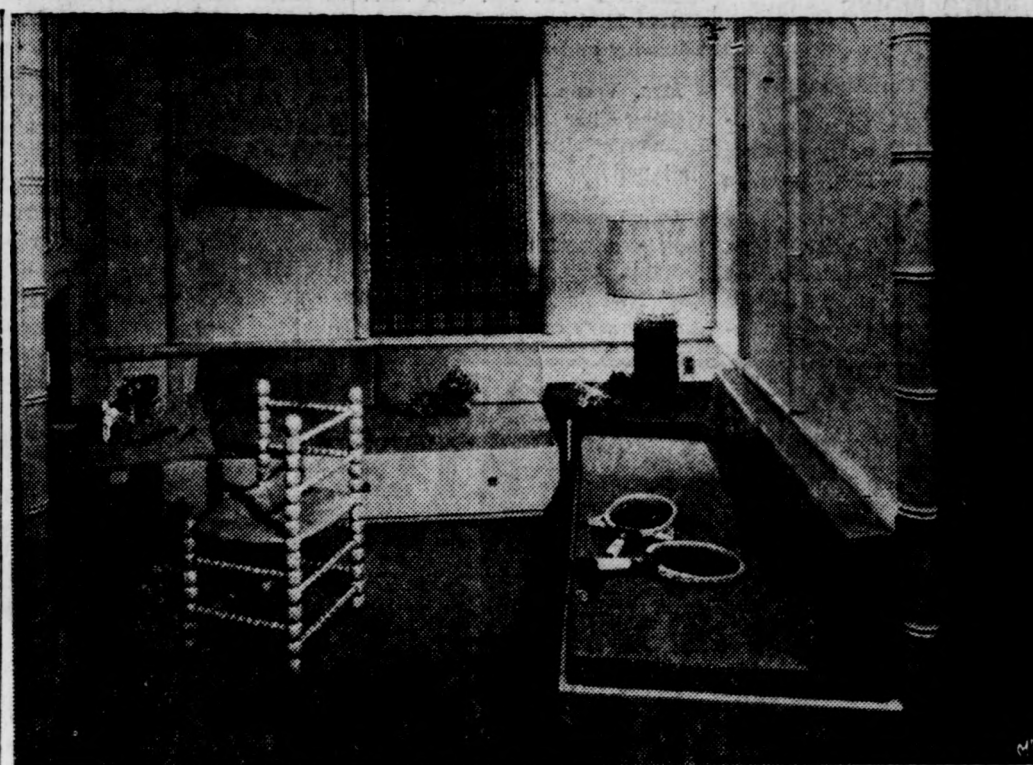

Date-Coconut Fancies come to the aid of any party, and beautifully so. Many hostesses needlessly shy away from entertaining, or even fussing for the family, just as soon as the temperature climbs. But if she lets convenience foods do her work, she'll always be calm and cool regardless of the season. The Borden Kitchen turned the trick with these confections made so simply with pitted dates, walnut pieces, sweetened condensed milk and flaked coconut. For extra elegance, present in fluted paper cups.

Date-Coconut Fancies
(Makes about 40 confections)

1 (8-oz.) package pitted dates
1/2 cup walnut pieces
2/3 cup (one-half-15-oz. can) Borden's Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk
1-1/3 cups (one 3-1/2 oz. can) flaked coconut

Stuff pitted dates with walnut pieces. Shape each into a ball about the size of a walnut. In a small mixing bowl, combine condensed milk and coconut; mix well. Roll each stuffed date in coconut mixture until evenly coated. Place on waxed paper; let stand until firm. If desired, place in fluted paper cups to serve.

A highly practical, but imaginative, group of children's rooms is being exhibited by U. S. Rubber in the Pavilion of American Interiors at the 1965 New York World's Fair. Interior designer Everett Brown, F.A.I.D., was commissioned to design rooms that would solve the most common problems which plague homemakers. These rooms have charm and color. They have lots of built-in storage space and the materials used are durable and washable!

Mr. Brown, who has teenaged children of his own, declared: "Kids today, like their parents, appreciate color and are more discerning in their selection of furniture and decoration. They deserve more than hand-me-down furnishings. These rooms were designed to be eminently practical, but also include uses of color and textures which appeal to today's youngsters."

Fair visitors to the U.S. Rubber exhibit will see Brown's interpretation of the ideal boys' room, designed for two brothers about seven and nine years old. Bold colors — gold, black and green — bamboo trim and custom-designed drop shades combine to make the room the envy of any young gentlemen. The arrangement of furniture allows for comfortable living as well as sleeping. Bolsters on the bunk beds create studio couches for daytime use. A shelf-style desk, covered in washable Naugahyde, gives an uncluttered look. Built-in bookshelves above the desk are attractively lined with the same material.

Visitors to the U.S. Rubber exhibit at the Fair will be able to see, in one location, advanced decorating ideas, from one of America's top interior designers, come alive with the newest styles and colors of modern materials.

St. Louis Site Of Costly Fire

ST. LOUIS, Mo. UPI—One of the most destructive fires in St. Louis history raged through six buildings in a downtown warehouse district today.

The giant six-story Shapleigh furniture building which covers nearly two square blocks was demolished. Its 10-story smokestack toppled from the flaming rubber and two catwalks spanning the Terminal Railroad tracks from the Shapleigh building fell in flames.

The glow in the night sky could be seen 18 miles from St. Louis and brisk southerly winds for a time carried flaming fire brands into the air, threatening nearby structures.

At 6:30 a.m. CDT, fire officials said the blaze was under control, four and one-half hours after it started.

The other buildings in the fire area were mainly unoccupied and nearly destroyed.

Rights Marchers At Mayor's Home

By United Press International

Civil rights demonstrators disbanded early today outside the home of Chicago mayor Richard J. Daley where they were pelted with eggs and tomatoes by his angry neighbors.

At least one demonstrator and one policeman were hit by the missiles.

Democratic aldermen joined police in urging the bystanders to return home. About 125 demonstrators, led by Negro comedian Dick Gregory, plodded through rain at Daley's home for the third successive night to protest alleged school segregation.

They broke up without further incidents about 1:30 a.m. EDT.

In Americus, Ga., civil rights leaders warned white bystanders not to come too near a demonstration Tuesday night and made it clear they were ready for trouble.

"You better think twice or maybe three times," Judson Ford, an official of Dr. Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, shouted at the white onlookers.

Nearly 300 demonstrators under heavy police guard marched last night on the Americus courthouse.

Earlier, Eddie James Lamar and Charlie Lee Hopkins, both 21-year-old Negroes, were indicted for murder in the night-rider slaying of Andrew Whatley, a 21-year-old white youth, last Wednesday night during a demonstration. They will be tried in November.

Murder Trial
Date Sept. 20

MARION, UPI — A new date of Sept. 20 for the murder trial of Mrs. Phyllis Hezelbaker, 30, Alexandria, was set Monday for Grand Circuit Judge Manuel Guerrero.

Mrs. Hezelbaker originally was scheduled to be tried Aug. 2, in the pistol slaying of Mrs. Ethel Key, 29, Marion, wife of her ex-boy friend. The trial was postponed because one of the defense attorneys was in England.

Mrs. Hezelbaker and Loyd Key, 30, husband of Ethel, were indicted on first-degree murder charges in the death of Mrs. Key along a superhighway near Daleville last spring as the Keys returned homeward after spending their 13th wedding anniversary.

FILM DEBUT
HOLLYWOOD UPI — England's rock 'n' rolling Dave Clark Five makes its motion picture debut in appropriately in "Having a Wild Weekend."

IT'S UP TO HANOI—Holding a news conference in Washington, Secretary of State Dean Rusk says the United States wants to know just what the Communists would do in return if the U.S. halted air attacks on North Viet Nam. "Nobody has even hinted" at whether Hanoi would pull its 325th Division out of South Viet Nam and call off the guerrillas if the U.S. attacks ceased, he said.

ACTOR HELD IN BRAWL — Ramon Ortiz, 22, actor who appeared with Burt Lancaster in the film, "The Young Savages," is shown at police headquarters in New York after he and a teen-aged companion were arrested for alleged participation in an East Harlem street brawl. ASTRONAUT "EJECTED"—Maj. Duane E. Graveline, 34, one of the six new astronauts, is shown with his family in San Antonio, Tex., before his wife Carole Jane filed suit for divorce, charging he is a man of "ungovernable outbursts of temper and passion." Their four daughters are 11, 12, 13, and 14.

MAKE WAY!—Police have a tough time clearing the way for George Papandreu's car in Athens as some 200,000 of the 77-year-old deposed premier's supporters clamor in his defense. King Constantine, 25, fired him in a defense ministry dispute. (Cablephoto)

PEACEFUL INTEGRATION—Richard Holmes seems to be unnoticed as he stands in line to pay fees after registering at previously all-white Mississippi State University, Starkville.

MAIN STREET of Smithville, Mo., is a littered mess after receding of flood waters of the Little Platte River. The entire downtown section of the town of 1,000 was under water.

"FAR-OUT" LEFT leaders include (from left) William Eaton, 32, vice president of the Progressive Labor Party; Milton Rosen, 38, PLP president; Jack Barnes, 25, Young Socialist Alliance national chairman. PLP's leaders say "the people" demand revolution. Rosen was expelled from the Communist Party because he wouldn't de-Stalinize. YSA preaches Trotskyism and Castroism. And then there are The Provisional Organizing Committee to Reconstitute the Marxist-Leninist Communist Party, Youth Against War and Fascism.

BEFORE AND AFTER—The front and back of this creation by Princess Irene Galitzine in Rome shows a marked contrast. Note the diagonal movement in the design. (Cablephoto)

PARIS UPI — Two young Frenchwomen have set about seeing that visitors love Paris in the springtime, in the summer . . . the year round.

Their formula for saying welcome stranger is as simple as un, deux, trois.

Let the stranger hire a friend, he or she can through Marthe de la Rochefoucauld and Claude de Clermont-Tonnerre, bosses of the newly-organized "Hostesses Internationales."

The firm for a fee—a basic $38 a day—offers guidance on shopping, sight-seeing, acts as chauffeur, secretary, translator or intelligent conversationist and attractive addition when businessmen want toney atmosphere at corporate cocktail parties.

Aid Visitors
Mme. de la Rochefoucauld, 26, explained why she and her cousin, Mlle. de Clermont-Tonnerre, 24, set up the firm.

People hear that Paris is a very old city," she said. "Well, it is a big city and as in any big city it is difficult to know the good little shops, good restaurants . . .

"My cousin and I were always helping friends of our parents on visits. And we knew many businessmen who told us how difficult it was to get along. Many persons are frightened by lack of French hospitality."

"Even the French government recognizes this: It has ordered a campaign to welcome tourists with a smile instead of a snarl."

Like A Club
Some three months ago, the two women announced "hostesses" and today they have "about 80," mostly young women but a few young men, working full or part-time. Mme. de la Rochefoucauld said they recruited from among their relatives, friends "and friends of friends because we want this to be sort of like a club."

"The hostesses must have a good education . . . know how to speak languages . . . how to meet people."

They also must be morally above reproach—no tired businessman and long evening she-nanigans. Mme. de Rochefoucauld said firmly. If a business contract calls for work in the evening, the hostess takes along a male acquaintance—"usually he's a cousin," said she.

"When the soil moves, people move. When the soil fails, life fails." — Robert Flaherty, in Scenario for "The Land."

Conservation seeks to insure to society the maximum benefit from the use of our natural resources.

"I know of no pursuit in which more real and important service can be rendered to any country than by improving its agriculture." — George Washington.

Hollywood

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD UPI — Her name is Sandy Dennis. She's blonde, exciting and different. And you will be hearing from her.

Sandy, a native of Nebraska, gained a medium of fame on Broadway in "Any Wednesday" in which she captivated audiences for a full year.

But now she's graduating to the big-time. She will co-star with Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?"

It's a tremendous opportunity, a show case, for the radiant youngster. If she does well, Sandy won't be afraid of Virginia Woolf, or anyone else. And chances are she will co-star with Frank Sinatra in the screen version of "Any Wednesday."

Not Conventional Blonde Sandy, as needs be, has something special going for her. She's not the stock Hollywood blonde. Once you see her you'll remember her.

She wears little or no make-up, driving the photographers at Warner Bros. crazy. She also refuses to wear restricting undergarments.

Sandy stormed Hollywood a couple of years ago without success. She appeared for a screen test and the wardrobe lady insisted she wear a torso torturing all-in-one foundation garment.

Sandy took one look at the iron maiden and quit cold.

Screen Test Successful
"I refused to get all trussed up with falsies and those whalebone corsets," Sandy explained. "If I can't be myself, I won't be anyone else."

"The first time I tried the movies I couldn't get tested, but it's different this time. I came out here to test for a specific part. Everyone has been gracious and helpful. I wanted to play this role very much and I'm happy the test was successful."

I'd like to stay out here and work in other pictures, but there's another play for me in

New York - Dauphine in Cottage D.

"It will have to be delayed if the picture deal for 'Any Wednesday' works out. If not, I'll be back in New York by October."

Coatesville News

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson of Bloomington, Indiana, were Thursday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davidson.

Danner's Babe Ruth of Danville crossed bats with Coatesville on the local lot the middle of the week. There was enough hitting and scoring to keep the spectators on the edge of their seats. Winger hit a 4 sacker for the local team and Jones got a double. The winning pitcher was Robinson for Danners. The final score was Danners 6, Coatesville 4.

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elston Herrin, Richmond, and Charles are visiting this week with parents and other kin.

Richmond Herrin and family came from Witchata Falls, Texas, Wednesday. He is a Medical Laboratory technician and will be sent by the government to the Philippine Islands.

Charles Herrin came home from Amerillo, Texas, where he is a U. S. Supply Specialist. In a month from now he hopes to be in Germany.

Mr. Gene Johnson of Plainfield accompanied by Joe Davidson were spectators at the double header played Friday evening at Robe-Ann Park.

N. F. P. won over Old Toppers 6-4. Old Toppers had too many errors behind a good pitcher.

The second game between Torr's Restaurant and Danville had a "Frank Merriwell" finish.

Ninety-nine fans in a hundred would have conceded Danville's defeated team with two out in the final inning but Danville won. Pitcher Sharp was really sharp for the Danville boys.

"God has lent us the earth for our life. It is a great entail. It belongs as much to those who are to come after us as to us, and we have no right to anything we do or neglect, to involve them in any unnecessary penalties, or to deprive them of the benefit which was in our power to bequeath." — Ruskin.

Coatesville News

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Elrod and Mr. and Mrs. James Smedley of Canaan drove to Brooklyn Sunday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gritts.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brown of Amo accompanied by Miss Jenny Brown and Mrs. Larry Salaman spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Trout at Camp Belzer near Indianapolis.

In the baseball tournament held last weekend at North Salem the Coatesville Babe Ruth team downed Stilesville 7-1. Joe Jones was the winning pitcher.

In the second game the Coatesville team played Country Lanes. Johnson was on the mound for the local team and did a good job. However, there were far too many errors behind him. In one inning Country Lanes scored seven big runs. To the spectator the inning looked like a first class track meet. Every Country Lane player seemed to be racing for the plate. The final score was Country Lane 15, Coatesville, 7.

Mr. Henry Harlan is reported to be recovering from his illness of last week.

Mr. Wendell Elrod was on a business trip to Bloomington recently and while there visited with an Army buddy of World War I days. The old friend was Mr. Mark Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown drove to southern Indiana Sunday and while in Hayden they visited an uncle, Mr. Wilbur Cassidy and family. After a lunch in Madison they drove to Bryantsburg where they visited some friends they had not seen in several years.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elston Herrin Sunday were Mrs. Dona Herrin of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Weatherman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Herrin and family of Amo.

Mrs. Oral McCammack was a caller on a friend at the Hendricks County Hospital Tuesday and later in the day she visited with a kinswoman at a hospital in Terre Haute.

Miss Ella Wise, Joyce Phillips, Jody Harper and Paulette Greeson of Amo and Linda Sue Coffey and Roberta Rannels of Coatesville were Tuesday night guests of Miss Nancy Goss at Indianapolis. They all enjoyed the evening at Riverside Park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bottorff of New Washington, Indiana, and Mrs. Gene Kent of Sellersburg were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bottorff.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jamison are receiving some very interesting letters from near kinsmen working for a large oil company in Tripoli, Libya, which is one of the desert lands of North Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Kramer and two children write from their new Tripoli home that the Libyan people they have met are very friendly. The town is marvelous in many ways, a part of it making one think it had come out of the "Arabian Nights."

A neighbor to the Kramers has three wives and fourteen children and preparation is being made for a wedding. A sheep has been penned up to fatten and for a week drums have sounded as a reminder of the coming marriage and wedding feast.

Mr. Kramer's work is two hundred miles in the desert so he goes each day in a plane with other employees.

Mrs. Kramer says this of the food problem: "It is about three times as high as back in the States."

Around 9:10 Thursday morning the local fire siren started

The Daily Banner, Greencastle, Indiana
Wednesday, August 4, 1965

11 blowing. From the Pennsylvania railroad crossing one could look eastward and see great clouds of black smoke billowing upward into the sky. Three buildings were on fire in Amo just to the rear of the elevator weighing office. The old lumber sheds were blazing all over, a large old barn was a mass of flame and the wooden doors, rafters and other wooden parts of a concrete block building were afire.

Four companies were fighting the blaze: Coatesville, Stilesville, Clayton and Amo. By ten o'clock the fire had been brought under control and nearby homes and out buildings were safe.

No one seemed to know the origin of the fire.

"Those who labor in the earth are the chosen people of God, if ever He had a chosen people, whose breasts He has made His peculiar deposit for substantial and genuine virtue." — Thomas Jefferson.

Farm News

By Gaylord P. Godwin
WASHINGTON UPI — The Foreign Agricultural Service says U.S. farm imports for consumption in fiscal 1964-65 apparently were slightly below the $4.096 billion worth of agricultural products purchased overseas in fiscal 1963-64.

Agricultural imports totaled $3.643 billion during the first 11 months of fiscal 1964-65. This was 4 per cent below a year earlier. FAS said both supplementary partially competitive and complementary non-competitive imports declined. In the same period, non-agricultural import rose 3.5 per cent. FAS said this reflected the continued economic expansion in the United States.

FAS said most of the decline in agricultural imports was due to a reduction in imports of beef and veal to 612 million pounds from 966 million pounds in July-May a year earlier. A larger part of Australian and New Zealand supplies of cow beef were diverted to Western Europe by favorable prices there, while increased domestic production of cow beef reduced

U.S. imports. Imports of sugar increased to 3.5 million tons in July-May, 1964-65, from 3.3 million tons in 1963-64. Sugar prices were lower this year than last, and the value of sugar imports declined by $100 million, FAS said.

Imports of coffee and carpet wool were lower than a year earlier in the first 11 months of 1964-65. These offset increases in oilseeds and products, tobacco, apparel wool, and the value of dairy products.

"My greatest opportunity is to be thought the first farmer of America." — George Washington.

Wrong Switch

VAN NUYS, Calif. UPI — Orderly Lucious Smith, 46, was assigned to shut off all the lights along a corridor of the Van Nuys jail Tuesday.

Flick, flick went the switches. Most of the lights went out. Then Smith flicked the last switch. Lights flashed and bells rang throughout the building.

"The next thing I knew there were policemen all over," Smith said.

"I thought it was a light switch." It wasn't — it was the jail-break alarm switch.

Vern Law Pitching Way To Comeback at 32

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

A season that really didn't start for Vern Law until May 21 is now almost certain to end with the Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher being acclaimed the comeback player of the year.

Winner of the major league pitcher of the year award in 1960 when he had a 20-9 record and 3.08 earned run average, Law developed a sore arm in 1961. He won only 31 games while losing 39 from 1961 through 1964 and appeared to be washed up when he lost his first five decisions this year.

But since May 21, when he beat the Milwaukee Braves for his first victory of 1965, Law has matched even the great Sandy Koufax in winning games. Since that date he's reeled off 12 victories, including four shutouts, and lost four games to raise his season record to 12-9. His earned run average has dipped to a splendid 1.93.

Same Period

During the same period Koufax has compiled a 12-2 record, Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants has been 10-3, Sammy Ellis of the Cincinnati Reds has gone 10-6, Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers has been 9-5 and Tony Cloninger of the Braves has had a 9-6 slate.

Law's favorite parties along the comeback trail have been the New York Mets.

The 35-year-old right-hander from Meridian, Idaho, shut out the Mets for the third time in as many tries Tuesday night with a three-hit 7-0 victory. Law walked one batter, struck out five and didn't allow a Met baserunner to advance past first base. The pirates backed him with a 13-hit attack that included two doubles and a single by Willie Stargell and Gene Aley's third homer of the season.

The San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds 6-3 in 11 innings, the Chicago Cubs whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 2-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Houston Astros 7-0 in the second game of a doubleheader after a 10-7 loss. The Dodgers and Braves were rained out.

AL Action

In the American League, Washington defeated Minnesota 4-2 after a 4-3 defeat, Detroit out-slugged Cleveland 12-7, Chicago ripped New York 3-2, Boston ripped Kansas City 10-5 and Baltimore beat Los Angeles 5-2.

Cincinnati pitching fell apart in the 11th inning and three intentional walks, Dick Schofield singled to touch off the winning rally but the first two runs of the inning scored on Lee Cardenas' wild throw after fielding a grounder with the bases loaded. Willie McCovey hit his 24th homer for the Giants and Pete Rose's eighth-inning homer tied the score for the Reds.

The win moved the Giants to within 3½ games of the Dodgers, who lead the Reds by 1½ and the Braves by 2½.

Bill Faul, who claims he hypnotizes himself before he pitches, hurled a two-hitter and struck out nine Phillies to win his second game for the Cubs. Billy Williams doubled home the Cubs' first run in the sixth and Faul singled home their other tally in the seventh. Faul retired the last 17 men in order after a third-inning single by Tony Gonzalez.

Pitcher Larry Dierker and Jim Wynn hit homers to lead a 15-hit Houston attack in the first game of a doubleheader but Ken Boyer drove in four runs with three hits and Bill White knocked in two with three safeties as the Cardinals won the nightcap. Ray Washburn allowed six hits and struck out seven to square his record at 7-7 for the Cardinals.

NOTICE

There will be a pitch-in supper Friday at Robe-Ann Park in the big shelter house for all Greencastle Babe Ruth players and parents.

LOCAL BOYS AT CAMP

Caught in a happy mood at Camp Voyager, in Ely, Minnesota was this group of Greencastle boys. They are: 1st row: Charles Johnson, Jay Moore; 2nd row: Charles Farber, John Erdmann and Tom French.

Voyager is owned and directed by Charles Erdmann of the DePauw Physical Education faculty. It is located in the heart of the North Woods canoe country and specializes in all water sports as well as adventurous canoe trips.

League Highlights

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD
UPI Sports Writer

Bouncing back from adversity is routine with Don Zimmer, baseball's gutty little fireplug.

After rebounding from a beating that left him unconscious for 11 days in 1953 and another that nearly cost him his sight in 1956, plus uncounted other setbacks, one bad game never puts "Little Zip" in the dumps.

The plucky Washington utility man, who has played every position except pitcher and he once volunteered to try it, committed three errors Tuesday night, including two on one play that enabled the Minnesota Twins to score the winning run in a 4-3 triumph.

That was the first game of a doubleheader, and Washington Manager Gil Hodges put the 11-year veteran back to third base in the nightcap. Just as Hodges might have expected, Zimmer delivered the game-winning blow, a two-run double in the fifth inning, as Washington won 4-2.

Orioles Move Up

Baltimore tripped Los Angeles 5-2 and moved into second place in the American League, 5½ games behind the Twins while Detroit clobbered Cleveland 12-7, Boston belted Kansas City 10-5, and Chicago edged New York 3-2 in other AL action.

In the National League, Pittsburgh blanked New York 7-0, San Francisco topped Cincinnati 6-3 in 11 innings, Chicago white washed Philadelphia 2-0 and Houston beat St. Louis 10-7 in the first of two games and the Cardinals captured the nightcap 7-0. The Los Angeles at Milwaukee game was rained out and rescheduled as part of a twilight-night doubleheader today.

Zimmer's blow over leftfielder Bob Allison's head broke a 2-2 tie and lefthander Mike McCormick went on to pick up his sixth win and his fourth victory in the last four starts for Washington. He allowed six hits. Mel Nelson was the victim of the hit and took his third loss without a victory.

Two In One

The twins scored the winning run in the seventh inning of the first game when Zimmer fumbled Zoilo Versalles grounder and then threw wildly to first base, allowing winning pitcher Jim Grant to score.

Injured in Game

ST. LOUIS UPI — Right-fielder Walt Bond of the Houston Astros may have suffered three or four fractures of the ribs making a circus catch of a line drive by Dick Groat Tuesday night, an initial look at X-rays indicated today.

St. Louis Cardinal physician Dr. I. C. Middleman ordered the 6-foot, 6-inch outfielder to remain in St. Louis Jewish Hospital for several days while the X-rays are studied.

Bond crashed into the pavilion wall making a leaping catch of Groat's liner in the fifth inning of the second game of the doubleheader. Bond fell to the ground but was able to walk off the field. Dr. Middleman said Bond jammed his right elbow into his chest when he hit the wall.

Sam Snead Says He Will Fade From Competition

By EDWARD J. MCFALL
UPI Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA UPI — Sammy Snead, the Slammer from West Virginia, plans to "fade" soon from professional golf but still has that burning ambition to win one U. S. Open championship.

Snead said Tuesday that he plans to gradually retire from the professional golf circuit where he has starred for three decades, but still yearns for the one major tilt that has eluded him.

The 53-year-old Snead arrived here Tuesday to practice for this week's $25,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic at the suburban White-marsch Valley Country Club and said he would cut down his tournament appearance this year and next "until I fade out."

Snead, a three-time masters and professional golfers' association champion who has won more than 100 tournaments since turning pro in 1934, said he would like to win an open before returning but that "it was very unlikely."

The Open has been an enigma for Snead since 1939 when he blew it at the nearby Philadelphia Country Club by carding an eight on the last hole.

Snead and Ben Hogan, another golfing great making one of his rare tournament appearances, are sentimental favorites in the 72-hole classic which opens at the par 72 White-marsch course Thursday.

The two also will have an opportunity to continue their old rivalry next week at the PGA tourney at Laurel Valley Golf Club in Ligonier, Pa.

Hogan has been at White-marsch since Sunday playing rounds on the 6,807-yard course and is making his first appearance in the Philadelphia area since his dramatic playoff victory in the 1950 U. S. Open at the Merion Golf Club.

Gary Player, current Open champion who also arrived here Tuesday, and Jack Nicklaus were rated as the favorites to capture the $24,300 first prize in the four-day tournament.

Norm Hall Recovering from Amputation

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Norm Hall, the Los Angeles, Calif., race driver injured seriously July 25 during the running of the first Hoosier Grand Prix road race for Indianapolis-type cars, was reported in "fair" condition today, following surgery to remove his right foot.

The 39-year-old driver, who finished eighth in the point standings for the USAC national driving championship last year, was injured when his conventional roadster spun, rammed into a guard rail and flipped five times at Indianapolis Raceway Park during the race.

CHICAGO UPI — Carmen Piasecki, Indiana's 16-year-old Women's titlist, today entered the second round of match play in the Women's Western Junior Golf championship.

RECEIVE MERIT CERTIFICATES

John Gough, Rick Harlan, and Rick Bundy received Certificates of Merit at Junior Basketball Camp at Taylor University at Pland, near Marion. The directors of the camp are Marion Crawley and Don Odle assisted by a capable staff. Outstanding coaches and athletes are featured such as Hallie Bryant and Willie Gardner of the Harlem Globe Trotters and Bob Davenport, All-American of UCLA. Aside from emphasizing basketball fundamentals, sportsmanship, good team attitude, the goal of the program is to contribute to the development of the total boy through the physical, mental, and spiritual.

4-H JUNIOR LEADERS CLUBS

In most counties, 4-H Club members organize a countywide club made up entirely of Junior Leaders. They usually meet from six to 12 times a year to learn and share leadership ideas and techniques, to explore the junior leadership project, and to promote 4-H Club programs. Again, each Junior Leadership Club operates differently, and requirements for completion may vary.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

These Are Your Questions

CAN it be definitely established that a particular person is the father of a child?

The question of paternity cannot always be definitely decided by the study of the major blood groups.

Every child is born with a blood group that is inherited from one of the parents. There are four main blood groups, but there are many sub-groups that may be of some value in establishing paternity.

Two famous blood specialists, Dr. Karl Landsteiner and Dr. Alexander Weiner, discovered blood sub-groups which they call M and N. These sub-groups have been used in cases of questionable paternity. The child's M and N sub-groups can sometimes show whether or not a certain person can be the real father.

Not all the states have legally accepted blood grouping as a definite indication of paternity. The blood groups may suggest the possibility of paternity without being absolutely positive.

How often is it safe to have an X-ray of the chest or the teeth?

Yearly examination of the chest or the teeth by X-ray does not present any hazard of overexposure.

Patients' concern about X-ray exposure is highly exaggerated. Physicians and dentists use very small doses of X-rays for their pictures.

The safety limits are so well established for all machines that those specially trained in their use cannot overexpose their patients.
